Weimar geistvoll

North Tour

The "little great" town of Weimar was founded here in the north and lived through the darkest part of its history here as well. We start out exactly at that location where we can show Weimar's golden age and at the same time its ugly face of the Nazi period, the Market Square. Passing by the City Palace and the parish church St. Peter and Paul we approach the original settling of Weimar around Jacobs church and its significant cemetery. Shortly after we enter the manifestation of the darkest chapter of German history- the Nazi Gauforum. Aiming for the light, we walk towards the Theater Square, and there we get to the cradle of the first German Republic and meet the giants of German Classic.
